The challenge was to bring the soaring 10-foot ceiling into the design while re-purposing existing materials thus keeping an eye toward the new "green" lifestyle. A custom radius coffer ceiling became the backbone of the entire design.

Once discarded American Cherry wood was used in its "rustic" form to add warmth and character to the lighter ceiling color. Doors and window trim were faux finished with a wood grain to match the cabinetry.

PRODUCTS USED: Crystal Cabinet Works, Inc. American Cherry cabinetry; Sub-Zero refrigeration; two Wolf range tops, downdraft blower, double ovens, steamer unit and warming drawer; Best ventilation insert and blower; two Miele dishwashers; Marvel wine storage; Sea Foam Green granite countertops by Marble Concepts; Heat-N-Glow gas fireplace; Baker's Pride commercial pizza oven.
